Los Angeles River Map and Guide

Please share your experiences using this map! Your feedback will help us shape and refine the final version encompassing the entire Los Angeles River: mapfeedback@folar.org

This map was produced with a technical assistance grant from the National Parks Service Rivers, Trails & Conservation Assistance program and a partnership between:

Friends of the Los Angeles River
FolAR.org

Los Angeles River Map & Guide

GLENDALE NARROWS

Starting points are the same swinging points for your trip. The trail is marked with signs.

Los Angeles River Recreation Zone

Open From Memorial Day to Labor Day for recreation activities such as walking, non-motorized, canoeing, boating, and cycling. See losangelesriver.org for safety guidelines and the program’s rules and regulations before visiting.

Please respect the neighborhood:

Do not park or take shortcuts through neighborhood.

Enter AT YOUR OWN RISK - When in doubt, stay out.

River conditions and hazards are subject to change without notice.

River Zone visitors are responsible for knowing and obeying all park rules, postings and warnings.

The Mountains Recreation and Conservation Authority (MRCA), with the support of LA City & County and the Army Corps of Engineers (ACE) manages the LA River Recreation Zone “open space” where the public is invited to walk, fish, and kayak the river from Fletcher Ave to Egret Park.

GLENDALE NARROWS

Marsh Park:

You can access it from the Garden

3.9-acre park filters stormwater and replenishes native plant-driven, stormwater; features interpretive signage, natural vegetation, equestrian activities, and a bike path.

Elysian Valley Bicycle & Pedestrian Path:

There are numerous entry points to this 7.4-mile path that starts at the Riverside-Victory Bridge and ends at Egret Park.

Services and activities:

- Interpretive signage
- Educational programs
- Equestrian activities
- Non-motorized, steerable boating, and fishing.

See lariverrecreation.org for safety guidelines and the program’s rules and regulations before visiting.

River Zone visitors are responsible for knowing and obeying all park rules, postings and warning.

The rights of way may be closed to protect wildlife and improve the water quality.

Marsh Park:

You can access it from the Garden

3.9-acre park filters stormwater and replenishes native plant-driven, stormwater; features interpretive signage, natural vegetation, equestrian activities, and a bike path.

Elysian Valley Bicycle & Pedestrian Path:

There are numerous entry points to this 7.4-mile path that starts at the Riverside-Victory Bridge and ends at Egret Park.

Services and activities:

- Interpretive signage
- Educational programs
- Equestrian activities
- Non-motorized, steerable boating, and fishing.

See lariverrecreation.org for safety guidelines and the program’s rules and regulations before visiting.

River Zone visitors are responsible for knowing and obeying all park rules, postings and warning.

The rights of way may be closed to protect wildlife and improve the water quality.

Marsh Park:

You can access it from the Garden

3.9-acre park filters stormwater and replenishes native plant-driven, stormwater; features interpretive signage, natural vegetation, equestrian activities, and a bike path.

Elysian Valley Bicycle & Pedestrian Path:

There are numerous entry points to this 7.4-mile path that starts at the Riverside-Victory Bridge and ends at Egret Park.

Services and activities:

- Interpretive signage
- Educational programs
- Equestrian activities
- Non-motorized, steerable boating, and fishing.

See lariverrecreation.org for safety guidelines and the program’s rules and regulations before visiting.

River Zone visitors are responsible for knowing and obeying all park rules, postings and warning.

The rights of way may be closed to protect wildlife and improve the water quality.

Marsh Park:

You can access it from the Garden

3.9-acre park filters stormwater and replenishes native plant-driven, stormwater; features interpretive signage, natural vegetation, equestrian activities, and a bike path.

Elysian Valley Bicycle & Pedestrian Path:

There are numerous entry points to this 7.4-mile path that starts at the Riverside-Victory Bridge and ends at Egret Park.

Services and activities:

- Interpretive signage
- Educational programs
- Equestrian activities
- Non-motorized, steerable boating, and fishing.

See lariverrecreation.org for safety guidelines and the program’s rules and regulations before visiting.

River Zone visitors are responsible for knowing and obeying all park rules, postings and warning.

The rights of way may be closed to protect wildlife and improve the water quality.

Marsh Park:

You can access it from the Garden

3.9-acre park filters stormwater and replenishes native plant-driven, stormwater; features interpretive signage, natural vegetation, equestrian activities, and a bike path.

Elysian Valley Bicycle & Pedestrian Path:

There are numerous entry points to this 7.4-mile path that starts at the Riverside-Victory Bridge and ends at Egret Park.

Services and activities:

- Interpretive signage
- Educational programs
- Equestrian activities
- Non-motorized, steerable boating, and fishing.

See lariverrecreation.org for safety guidelines and the program’s rules and regulations before visiting.

River Zone visitors are responsible for knowing and obeying all park rules, postings and warning.

The rights of way may be closed to protect wildlife and improve the water quality.

Marsh Park:

You can access it from the Garden

3.9-acre park filters stormwater and replenishes native plant-driven, stormwater; features interpretive signage, natural vegetation, equestrian activities, and a bike path.

Elysian Valley Bicycle & Pedestrian Path:

There are numerous entry points to this 7.4-mile path that starts at the Riverside-Victory Bridge and ends at Egret Park.

Services and activities:

- Interpretive signage
- Educational programs
- Equestrian activities
- Non-motorized, steerable boating, and fishing.

See lariverrecreation.org for safety guidelines and the program’s rules and regulations before visiting.

River Zone visitors are responsible for knowing and obeying all park rules, postings and warning.

The rights of way may be closed to protect wildlife and improve the water quality.

Marsh Park:

You can access it from the Garden

3.9-acre park filters stormwater and replenishes native plant-driven, stormwater; features interpretive signage, natural vegetation, equestrian activities, and a bike path.

Elysian Valley Bicycle & Pedestrian Path:

There are numerous entry points to this 7.4-mile path that starts at the Riverside-Victory Bridge and ends at Egret Park.

Services and activities:

- Interpretive signage
- Educational programs
- Equestrian activities
- Non-motorized, steerable boating, and fishing.

See lariverrecreation.org for safety guidelines and the program’s rules and regulations before visiting.

River Zone visitors are responsible for knowing and obeying all park rules, postings and warning.

The rights of way may be closed to protect wildlife and improve the water quality.
Griffith Park

Given as a land grant to the City of Los Angeles as a “place of recreation and rest for the masses” Griffith Park is the largest municipal park with urban wilderness area in the US. The trail in Griffith Park is a relatively flat, 4-mile multi-use recreational trail.

The Juan Bautista de Anza National Historic Trail corridor follows the LA River and commemorates the 1775-1776 Spanish expedition to settle Alta California. The trail in Griffith Park is a relatively flat, 4-mile multi-use recreational trail.

Los Angeles River Map and Guide

- Restrooms
- Pedestrian Access
- Metro Stop
- Bicycle Access
- Equestrian Area
- Anza Point of Interest
- Class I, II/III Bike Path

This map is intended for recreational use only. Information displayed is derived from sources deemed reliable; however, accuracy is not guaranteed. Published in July 2014.

Because of its proximity, Atwater Village's history has always been inextricably linked to changes in the LA River, from fertile cropland to flood control channel. Appropriately, Atwater Village has historically been home to passionate activists and artists looking to improve and protect their community.

Please respect the neighborhood! Do not park in or take shortcuts through neighborhood. River Zone visitors are responsible for knowing and obeying all park rules, postings and warnings.

Los Angeles River Recreation Zone

Open from Memorial Day to Labor Day for recreation activities such as walking, non-motorized, steerable boating, and fishing. See lariverrecreation.org for safety guidelines and the program’s rules and regulations before visiting.

Please respect the neighborhood! Do not park in or take shortcuts through neighborhood. River Zone visitors are responsible for knowing and obeying all park rules, postings and warnings.

River conditions and hazards are subject to change without notice.